Tree Lighting

Wishing you and your loved ones a joyous holiday season and a peaceful and prosperous new year

From Mr. Poole:

Thanks to everyone who attended the Marching Band Banquet on Saturday. A big shout out to Mrs. Paulk and committee for the outstanding meal. Although I was under the weather and unable to attend, I hear it was a huge success. We had many students that were recognized for their outstanding work and we are always happy to share the great news of their efforts.

The two videos that were presented at the banquet have been shared through a Charms email this afternoon. I thoroughly enjoyed putting together the judges' video. As you may know, the staff works all season long using the critical comments for growth. This is an enjoyable one time of year moment to work with only the positive comments, which there were many to choose from!

Great job goes out to Ian Davis, Karlye Kuhns, Josh Rutters and Chloe Warner at the District Band auditions on December 4. These students went above and beyond in rehearsing, and preparing the video auditions for this year's District Band. Congratulations to Karlye (clarinet), Josh (tenor sax) and Chloe (trumpet) for their selection to the District Band. That festival will take place on January 28/29, with the concert on Saturday January 29 at Central York HS.

Symphonic Band is up and running and we have been working hard for the past few weeks. Our Winter Concert is Wednesday, February 2nd at 7PM.

Jazz Band has been performing in the community, both for the New Freedom and the Shrewsbury tree lightings. The Winter Concert for the Jazz Band is this Sunday, December 19 at 2PM and 3:45PM. We will be performing in the lobby prior and after the concert performances.

Indoor Colorguard and Percussion have both had their start up meetings and have been rehearsing. Next rehearsal for Guard is Wednesday night 6-9 at Friendship and Indoor Percussion Thursday night 6-9 at SHS.
